WOULD PREVENT
CROP IN 1908

Bill Provides Tax of $50 An Acre On Tobacco.

Presented In Senate and House At Same Time.

State Board of Labor Arbitration Proposed

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—In order to prevent the growing of any tobacco in 1908 bills were introduced to-day in the House and the Senate providing a tax of $50 an acre on all tobacco grown during 1908. The proposed act is drastic and if it becomes a law will prevent any crop in 1908, for no grower could handle a crop with any profit if he was forced to pay a tax of nothing of this bill, but if it falls in the same category with the other drastic tobacco bills which have been introduced.

the members put in sixty-five new bills covering almost everything that could be thought about. The Senate also had a number of bills introduced.

A liquor bill of importance went in both in the House and the Senate. It prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors where any other business is carried on, and would reach the salaried which have saloons in connection therewith, and would also prevent drug stores from selling.

ciliation and Investigation, to prevent labor troubles, was offered by R. L.
Gwathmey. The bill is long and enters into the minutest detail of the formation of the board and of its duties. It provides that where an employer has any difference with employees on the subject of wage troubles, or vice versa,
provided he has more than twenty em-

ASK RECEIVER.

Standard Trust Co. Alleged To Be Insolvent.

LEXINGTON MAN SUES BIRMINGHAM INSTITUTION.

FRANK HENRY, SR., SOUGHT BY HIS SON.

MISSING FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Suit was filed in the Circuit Court here today by Benjamin M. Leasing, of this city, and others, asking that the Standard Trust Company, whose principal office is at Birmingham, Ala., be declared insolvent and a receiver be appointed. The plaintiffs allege that they and other persons in whose interests they were induced to invest various sums of money in the company, on various promises, one of which was that the company was perfectly solvent, and that by a system of compounding interest would make a total interest on the money invested of 8 per cent., and that the plaintiffs and other investors would be loaned $1,000 on each contract held by them at 5 per cent., yet that the company would increase to $1,750 in twelve months, and that all investors who did not procure loans would be paid one dollar and fifty cents for each one dollar paid in, and that the payment would be made within eight months.

Allege False Promises.

It is alleged that these and similar promises were made and were made for the fraudulent purpose of securing investments from the plaintiffs and others, that the company was insolvent and was known by the managers of the company to be so. The plaintiffs also state that the company was incorporated in Delaware, in 1904, and that the capital stock authorized was $500,000, but that not over $1,000 of this stock was paid for.

Missing Four Months.

Frank Henry, Sr., a well-known citizen of Lexington, Ky., is reported here to have been missing for four months. He is said to have been in Los Angeles, Cal., but he never arrived at his destination, and although his son, Frank Henry, Jr., has traveled over the route his father was expected to go in search of him and the police of the cities between here and Los Angeles have been working on the case for several months, he has not been seen by friends or kindred since he boarded the train at the depot here last September. A strange feature of the case, and one which has added strength to the fear of his disappearance, is that he had met with foul play, is that through ticket with which he started from here has been found to have been used by someone at Los Angeles. Mr. Henry was about seventy years old, and had lived in this city nearly all his life. Having become infirm from age, he decided to go to Los Angeles to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Peters. He bought a through ticket over the Louisville and Nashville to Cincinnati, thence by the Pennsylvania to Chicago, where he was to take the Santa Fe to Los Angeles. He started from here on September 15, and when after several weeks his daughter wrote asking why he had not arrived at Los Angeles, his son, Frank Henry, Jr., started out to try to trace his father. An investigation at Los Angeles showed that Mr. Henry's railroad ticket had been used for the entire trip, and that he trunk, which had been checked, was not found. The most thorough search, however, failed to reveal that any man answering the description of Mr. Henry had arrived at Los Angeles, and the police of that city are convinced he did not reach there. It is feared that the man who used the ticket and robbed somewhere on the road, his assailants not only taking his money and valuables, but also his trunk, which they said contained themselves. His son and daughter comprise his immediate family, but he has four brothers, Patrick, Daniel, John and Barry Henry, who live in this city.

Cashier Resigns.

Charles Bean, who has been assistant cashier of the Second National Bank for several years, has resigned on account of ill health and with a view of giving more attention to his private business. It is understood that the Board of Directors will select George Weeks, who has been acting as cashier, to succeed Mr. Bean, and Alvin Stitz, who is now the general bookkeeper, will be made teller.

Light Sales On Breaks.

There was a decided falling off today in the quantity of light sales placed at the auction warehouse, only about 200,000 pounds changing hands. The prices ranged from twenty-five and a half to thirty cents, and a crop of 3,800 pounds, from Madison county, bringing an average of nineteen cents.

Married In Lexington.

George Falconer, Jr., and Miss Angie Smith Jones, both of Lexington, Ky., were married in the Phoenix Hotel parlors here at noon today. David Barrow, the well-known surgeon, who has been critically ill from pneumonia for several days, is no better to-night. He is at St. Joseph's Hospital.

RATHER SUDDEN

Retirement of Col. John M. Marshall From Service.

QUARTERMASTER OF ARMY DEPT AT JEFFERSONVILLE.

SCHEDULED TO RETIRE BY AGE NEXT SPRING.

APPOINTED UNDER LINCOLN.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Secretary Taft, calling for the President, today ordered the retirement of Col. John M. Marshall, Quartermaster of the Jeffersonville, Ind., depot. The retirement of Col. Marshall while his case has been on the verge of age for some weeks, caused no little surprise as he would be retired for age on May 31, and in view of the short time before that date it was supposed he would retire. General Marshall said to-night that it was his present intention to place Lieut. Col. George Ruhlen in charge of the Jeffersonville depot. General Aylshire is not certain that he can do this as Col. Ruhlen is now engaged on an important work. Of his designation, Col. Ruhlen would not take charge for a month or six weeks and this will probably be arranged. Col. Ruhlen is an efficient officer of the Quartermaster's department. He was born in Germany nearly sixty-one years ago and was appointed to the Military Academy from Ohio in 1868, graduating in 1872, when he was assigned to the Seventeenth Infantry. He was appointed a captain and quartermaster in 1890, a major in 1900 and a lieutenant colonel in 1903. During the Spanish war he served as a volunteer lieutenant and quartermaster, rendering excellent service.

NOT A SURPRISE.

Retirement of Col. Marshall Discussed For Some Time.

While it was not generally known in Jeffersonville last night that an order had been received from Washington regarding Col. James M. Marshall as Depot Quartermaster General and Deputy Quartermaster, it did not come as a surprise to those who did learn of it, as he announced several days ago, that he expected to leave in two weeks. For several months it has been talked that Col. Marshall was asked for transfer to some other depot or retirement before the date for such action next May under the age limit.

In all Col. Marshall has been in charge of the Government Depot in Jeffersonville for about six years. He first came there in September, 1901, and remained until in April, 1902, when he was sent East. There he became ill and he was transferred back to Jeffersonville, arriving there early in July, 1904. He was in line for promotion to the position of under Quartermaster, and it was believed he could secure the place a few months ago, when a change was about to be made, but he expressed a desire not to be considered, because it would be only a short time until he would be retired.

It is not generally known that during the nearly thirty-six years the present depot has been in existence but the men have been in charge of the depot was built in 1872, and Col. James E. Elkin became the first Quartermaster. In his services in Jeffersonville Col. Marshall had charge of millions of dollars worth of supplies and his departure it is believed there will be other changes and it is almost certain that Capt. George G. Bailey will be promoted to the position of Major and sent elsewhere. He has been the assistant to Col. Marshall for several years and he is the best liked man ever stationed at the depot. Up to a few weeks ago Col. Marshall lived in Kentucky and recently he gave up his house and went to the depot. Col. Marshall is a lineal descendant of the noted family of Marshalls in Kentucky and he is the son of a prominent family in the State.

Va., Jan. 23.—Two of the contracting firms recently indicted by the United States grand jury for violation of the Federal eight-hour law by working employees on dam construction over eight hours a day, pleaded guilty before Judge Davidson today and were fined $15 each. The Holmbeck May Contract Company and the Shenandoah Brick Company are the firms concerned.

SHE MADE A MISTAKE.

[Washington Correspondence to the New York World.]

Senator Johnston, of Alabama, owns a beautiful home in Birmingham and takes great delight in donning a pair of overalls and a split hickory hat and working in the garden. One day shortly after the expiration of his last term as Governor a fashionably dressed woman, who had resided in Birmingham only a short time and had never before been called on by him, called on his wife. No one answered the bell, so she walked out into the flower beds where the ex-Governor was hoeing some geraniums. He bowed and she asked him how long he had worked for the Johnston family. "A good many years, madam," he replied.

"Do they pay you well?"

"About all I get out of it is my clothes and keep."

"Why, come and work for me," she said. "I'll do that and pay you so much a month besides."

"I thank you, madam," he replied, bowing very low. "But I signed up with Mrs. Johnston for life."

"Why, no such contract is binding. That is poeague."

"Some may call it that, but I have always called it marriage."

CHESTNUT LEAF CIGARS.

[St. Louis Republic.]

Cigars are being made out of chestnut leaves over in England nowadays. So far it appears, the custom has not been adopted here. The chestnut leaf has been called within the last couple of weeks to this new industry. So many men are employed in cutting up the dead leaves in the chestnut groves of several big London parks that hewage was instituted and this led to the discovery that the leaves were being turned into filers for cheap cigars.

The leaves are dipped into tobacco juice so that they absorb large quantities of it. These are inclosed in wraps of leaf tobacco.

While it is declared that smokers are unable to detect the spurious tobacco, no attempt is made to get fancy prices for the cigars. They sell for one and two cents apiece.

The men who collect the leaves make very good wages as the scale goes in England. They average $10 a week while the chestnut trees are leaving.

Perhaps no branch of the United States army is so little thought of by the general public and so much in the thoughts of the officers and enlisted men as the paymaster's department, writes the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. The use of the army paymaster's department, which is a public body, is the opinion of all and a matter of concern to many, but how they are paid is not generally known. The paymaster's department handles nearly forty million dollars annually. The paymaster's department is a public body, and its work is of great importance. NIGHT RIDERS MET BY ARMED GUARD.

SHOTS EXCHANGED, BUT NO ONE IS WOUNDED.

MOB ATTEMPTS TO BURN EVERMAN BROS. BARN.

HAD SOLD THEIR TOBACCO.

Owingsville, Ky., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Thomas and Nunn Everman, brothers and good citizens, who live two miles north of this place, were notified by night riders not to sell nor move their crop of 35,000 or 40,000 pounds of tobacco. They disregarded this warning, and, having sold to a Mr. Sterling dealer, they loaded their tobacco on five wagons for delivery.

Last night about 10:30 o'clock a crowd of men went to the Messrs' Everman's barn and tried to set it on fire. The Everman brother had the services of about a dozen neighbors as guards, all well armed, and when they challenged the mob they were fired on. The fire was returned and many shots were exchanged before the mob retreated, without damage. No one was wounded.

The tobacco was then hauled to Mr. Sterling under strong guard. The affair created great excitement here and worse things are feared. A court of inquiry will be held here to-morrow.

The suit is based on the fact that the company has conspired to fix the price of tobacco. The company has conspired to fix the price of tobacco. Lawless Negroes Responsible.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Prominent Clarksville citizens who were in Nashville to-day declare that there is no suspicion here that the lawless negroes who were in Clarksville last night to burn and dynamite a tobacco warehouse in that city were made up of lawless negroes or their agents. They say the crime was attempted by lawless and spiteful negroes.

PLOT TO OVERTHROW MONARCHY IN PORTUGAL.

More Than Forty Alleged Conspirators Arrested By the Police In Lisbon.

Lisbon, Jan. 23.—[By courier to Badajoz, Spain, Jan. 23.]—An abortive attempt to overthrow the monarchy and proclaim Portugal a republic was nipped in the bud last night by the prompt action of the Government. The plot was organized by a small group of advanced Republicans. As near as can be ascertained, the plan was to assassinate Premier Franco and then depend for success upon street risings, supported by secret Republican and labor organizations, armed with bombs and revolvers.

The conspirators intended to take advantage of various festivities to carry out the coup d'etat. The royal family were at Villa Vicosa, entertaining the Duke of Abruzzi. Most of the army and navy officers who were in the city were attending a gala performance at the theater, while many of the chief functionaries of state were present at a magnificent ball at one of the legations.

The police discovered what was in the wind early in the evening and surrounded and raided a house where the ringleaders in the plot were conferring. When they broke in the doors the lights were extinguished, and in the confusion that followed most of the conspirators managed to make their escape. Several of them, however, were captured, including the leader, Joao Chagas, a republican journalist, who was prominent in the republican movement of 1881, and a merchant by the name of Grendella. A case of revolvers and bombs was found in the cellar. A general alarm was immediately sent out, and while the prisoners were being taken to jail troops began to appear on the streets. A squadron of cavalry was placed around Premier Franco's house and the night passed without further incident.

From papers captured it was evident that the conspiracy was badly organized and planned. Chagas, the leader, has always been an active revolutionary. After the revolt in 1881 he escaped to Brazil, and subsequently, being pardoned by amnesty, returned to Portugal. Premier Franco has established a rigorous censorship so that details of the conspiracy may not be learned abroad. Outside of Lisbon no disturbances are reported.

The peaceful section of the Republicans headed by Bernardino Machado, apparently is in no way implicated in the affair. The Government organ, Diario Illustrado, to-day printed a warning that agitators against public order would be treated as criminals and the enemies of society.

To-night about forty conspirators were arrested. The police have obtained evidence of another revolt, planned to take place January 31, the anniversary of the Republican revolt at Oporto, if last night's plans failed.

CHIEF FLYNN RECIPIENT.

Admits, However, That Washington Dispatch Is True.

New York, Jan. 23.—While admitting that the facts in the dispatch from Washington concerning the finding in this city of munitions of war intended for the Haytian revolutionists, were true, Chief Flynn, of the local secret service bureau, would give no information as to where they were found or where they now are. He declared, however, that they had not been found in the same warehouse where the alleged counterfeit money, which led to the arrest here of Giordani, was located.
